

Louisville Bible College
Summer Offerings 2008
6:00pm – 10:00pm
Registration begins Monday, April 14, 2008

MONDAY

BOT 110 Old Testament Survey 3 hrs.

8 weeks: 5/19, 6/2, 6/9, 6/16, 6/23, 6/30, 7/7, 7/14

Mr. Chuck Lee, Professor

Course Description: An overview of the Old Testament, emphasizing continuity, and content. Attention will be given to each book as part of a unified revelation from God.

BTH 342 Eschatology 3 hrs.

8 weeks: 5/19, 6/2, 6/9, 6/16, 6/23, 6/30, 7/7, 7/14

Mr. Tim Dennis, Professor

Course Description: An examination of the theology of the last days, Second Coming of Christ, final resurrection and consummation.

TUESDAY

GSC 222x Earth Science 3 hrs.

5 weeks: 5/20, 5/27, 6/3, 6/10, 6/17

Mr. Ron Decker, Instructor

Course Description: A study of earth science including physical and historical geology, meteorology and descriptive astronomy; as well as the economic, social and philosophic aspects of the subject matter. (Work prior to the first week of class is required. See Academic Support for syllabus.)

THURSDAY

BNT 223 Life of Christ 2 3 hrs.

8 weeks: 5/22, 5/29, 6/5, 6/12 6/19, 6/26, 7/3, 7/10

Mr. Joe McKay, Assistant Professor

Course Description: A study of the Judean Ministry and the Final Week in the life of Jesus on earth through the Ascension.

BOT 355 Wisdom Literature: Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon 3 hrs.

8 weeks: 5/22, 5/29, 6/5, 6/12 6/19, 6/26, 7/3, 7/10

Mr. Jim Bowyer, Assistant Professor

Course Description: A study of the content, development and purpose of the books of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon, in order to find a storehouse of homiletical materials and divine wisdom for daily living.

TUESDAY GRADUATE CLASS

BNT 671 General Epistles: Hebrews 3 hrs.

8 weeks: 5/20, 5/27, 6/3, 6/10, 6/17, 6/24, 7/1, 7/8

Mr. Peter Rasor, Assistant Professor

Course Description: An exegetical study of the text with attention to the theological themes, historical setting, the use of the Old Testament and interpretation of selected portions.

SUMMER WEEKEND MODULE

PMN 312 The Effective Christian Congregation 2 hrs.

2 weekends: 5/30, 31; 6/27, 28.

Dr. Terry Peer, Professor

Course Description: A practical study of the need for purposeful ministry in the church. Emphasis will be placed upon how to profile and diagnose congregational health, understanding the life cycles of a church, and understanding change strategies for the local church. The foundational principles studied in this course, when applied, will breathe new life and energy into the church.

NOTE: Offered in the Module format. Class meets Fridays, 6:00 pm to 10:00 pm and Saturdays, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.